DELEGATE ELECTION, Tuesday, Nov. 2, 1880.

PEOPLE'S TICKET.

"THE HIGHEST POSSIBLE LIBERTY TO MAN AND WOMAN."

For Delegate to Congress, HON. GEO. Q. CANNON.

THE REPUBLICANS will now be claiming that Garfield has another qualification for President—he can speak German. He talked to his German friends on Monday.

THESE PEOPLE who are trying to make the summer last longer than nature has ordained that it should last, and who are practicing the economy that comes from delaying the starting of fires, ought to reflect that coal, even at the high prices which prevail here, costs less than doctors' visits and cough remedies. Warm, dry rooms are necessary to health at this season of the year, and especially so where there are children.

THE CORONER'S jury has found the fireman, conductor and engineer responsible for the recent railroad disaster in Pittsburg, by which many lives were lost. It now remains for the grand jury and the court to do their duty in the premises. Railroad rules and regulations are utterly worthless if they do not govern and regulate, as was the case in the Pittsburg affair. The way to make rules observed is to punish the criminal from whose thoughtlessness or recklessness murder results. It is possible to avoid collisions of railroad trains, but they will occur until railroad employees are made to understand that they will be punished as murderers for carelessly causing the death of those who entrust their lives to the care of the railway companies.

SENATOR WADE HAMPTON has sent to Secretary John Sherman what is regarded by the parties and the public as a challenge to a duel. Mr. Sherman very wisely regards the proceeding on the part of Hampton as foolish, and will therefore pay no attention to it in the personal way that the South Carolina senator invites him to; however, the wily secretary of the treasury will make good use—for his political party—of the non-sensational business. The public already has the correspondence that has passed between the gentlemen, and is making much of it to the injury of Hampton. Sherman is too wise to fight, and he gets out of it without his personal bravery suffering in the slightest degree; while Hampton must be regarded as a hot-headed ass, who has not yet learned, though living in this enlightened age, that his personal honor and character would suffer a good deal more from engaging in a duel than from pretty nearly any other act of which he could be guilty. This is not the age, nor is America the place for duels, and the sooner the "southern chivalry" that still believes in the code, comes to its senses and catches up to the times the better it will be for the "old families," socially and politically. Nobody will say John Sherman is a coward because he refuses to shoot Wade Hampton, or be shot by him; but everybody will commend the wisdom which prevents him from descending to the social level of one who would fight. On the other hand, Hampton can receive no sane praise for wanting to murder or be murdered, and no one will say he is a braver man than Sherman. The last named has the advantage at every point in this controversy, whereas Hampton might have had the better of the quarrel, provided he was not a kn-knuxer, as he claims.

THE NEW YORK World takes the New York Sun to task for saying the democratic party was guilty of a mistake when it refused to renounce the ticket of 1876—Tilden and Hendricks. The Sun never published truer words than those contained in its editorial which was reproduced in our telegraphic columns on Tuesday, and which has given offense to the World. When the Cincinnati convention allowed John Kelly and his band of bruisers to bulldoze it into a refusal to do justice to two of the greatest statesmen that America has produced, it was guilty of a blunder that amounts to a crime. The wrong was not alone upon Samuel J. Tilden and Thomas A. Hendricks, but upon the democratic voters everywhere. No ticket that could have been framed would have been as strong as the old one, and in making a change the best point that the party had was lost. We do not cry over split milk, but can never be made to see that the nomination of Hancock and English was not an unwise selection. It will make no difference should they be elected, of which there are very grave doubts; Tilden and Hendricks, and the democracy were defeated all the same. [Deleat would almost serve the party right for having listened to the dictation of the Tammany chief, who is more interested in the spoils of New York City office than in the success of the democratic party or the triumph of good principles of government. The question had come to be one of men, as well as principles, and justice should have been done to both. Furthermore, the New York World has no right to say which are democratic papers and which are not. For long years the World has been anything but an honest, conscientious party organ. Its doubtful politics, questionable practices and insincere professions long ago gave it a queer and lonely position, while the Sun, since it came under its present editor's management and control, has never been anything but the able, wise and consistent friend of honesty and right, both in and out of politics.

LATEST TELEGRAMS.

—oat Notes.

San Francisco, 19.—Portland dispatch: Nathan Eaton assistant postmaster of Spanish Hollow, has been arrested for robbing the mails. His stealings have been systematically pursued for several months. He confessed on arrest.

A daughter of George Madison, near Kerbyville, was burned to death, her clothes taking fire.

The San Jose Savings Bank has suspended business, going into voluntary liquidation on account of the lack of business. It will pay in full.

The Howe Bank, Fraud.

Boston, 19.—The Howe Bank's Bank fraud was up in court to-day. A lady clerk testified that Miss Howe may have been responsible for the affair. The newspaper articles caused them to pay out $40,000 the day before the suspension. A receiver was asked for, and the court reserved its decision.

Mrs. Ingeborg Woodward, wife of Jno. Woodward, defaulting cashier of the city treasury, has been arrested on a charge of complicity in the fraud.

The Storm.

Sioux City, 19.—A storm of set in here on Friday and became severe. The snowstorm on Saturday continued in a modified form through Sunday and yesterday, all the railroads leading to this city, except the Sioux City and Pacific, have been blocked, and the Central is open to day, and other roads are fast getting out of the grips. The weather was not so bad, but large losses in stock are reported. Nearly every farm has suffered. One man in this county is reported to have lost 300 head of sheep. Great loss of cattle in Dakota, Nebraska and Iowa is reported. The oldest inhabitant does not remember a storm of such severity so early in the season.

The New Transcontinental Railroad.

Chicago, 10.—At Chicago, the Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad Company has issued a circular to the shippers of California freight, announcing that that road and the Southern Pacific will be completed and connected about January 1st, 1881, thus opening up a new through route between the east and San Francisco, Sacramento, San Jose, Los Angeles, Marysville, and all other points in California and Arizona. It is worth forth that the new line will offer unequalled facilities for doing business, such as will warrant shippers in delaying any arrangements for the future until the new route is opened for business, of which due notice will be given.

THE CONFLICT OF AUTHORITY.

The State Will Make the Arrest—The National Government Forbids It, Provided—

Denver, 17.—Last night Governor Pitkin telegraphed Secretary Schurz that he had no advice of two companies of militia having started for war against the United States, and says, although his efforts at escape strengthen the conviction as to his guilt, I have no apprehension as to his personal safety when once in the custody of the sheriff at Gunnison. He requests the secretary to instruct the commander of the fort to deliver Berry to the sheriff. The governor received a telegram from Gen. Pope to-day, stating that he had orders from the President to protect Berry from the threat of the militia, and says, pending consideration of the subject by the attorney general.

The governor, this evening, received advice from the interior department, that a telegram had been sent to Agent Berry to the effect that a criminal process of the state is to be served upon him by lawful officers, and his arrest made, United States troops cannot interfere. In case the militia are with the officers and without process, the United States troops may be called upon to eject them, but no collision shall be provoked, and if discretion is used none need occur; that a United States attorney has been selected for the agency and will give all the necessary advice for the preservation of peace, which at the present time is all important, and the department will cooperate to that end.

Washington, 19.—The following dispatch was received at the interior department:

Denver, Oct., 18th.

Hon. C. Schurz, Secretary of the Interior:

As there is no telegraphic communication to Gunnison City, I am unable to get accurate and reliable reports from there. I have no advice of two companies of state militia having started for the reservation, and disbelieve the rumor. Information which has reached me is that the sheriff arrested Berry over a week ago at the agency; that Berry persuaded the sheriff to accompany him to a cantonment about four miles distant, where he escaped from the sheriff. Two dispatches have been received here to-day, one stating that he is escorted by the Indians, the other that he is protected by the commander at the post.

I respectfully request you to require the commander of the post to deliver him to the sheriff of Gunnison County, at Gunnison City. This will avoid the necessity of the sheriff taking state force with him to make the arrest. Although his efforts to escape have strengthened conviction as to his guilt, I have no apprehension as to his personal safety when once in the custody of the sheriff at Gunnison. Captain Cline has been in jail for about a week without being molested. The sheriff has telegraphed me that Berry and others will be safe from the mob in Gunnison. If you desire to have the military commander deliver him to the sheriff, I should like to be informed of the decision that I may notify the sheriff at once that further preparations for his arrest are unnecessary.

F. W. PITKIN.

POLITICAL.

Grace's Nomination—Sherman to be Retained as Secretary of the Treasury.

The New York Democracy United.

Montpelier, Vt., 18.—Edmonds was elected United States senator by the legislature, to-day. The vote in the house—Edmonds, 203; Smalley, 16; not voting, 18. Edmonds had the unanimous vote of the senate.

New York, 19.—The Times, while conceding the entire respectability of Grace, thinks there will be a natural desire on the part of the reflecting men of both parties to have his position defined on certain public questions. That the church to which he owes allegiance has dealt with, in a way which does not meet the approval of a majority of his fellow citizens, the public school question, among others, affords opportunity for the republicans of nominating the next mayor of New York is very good. The nomination by them of a republican acknowledged character and ability would undoubtedly secure the German democratic vote and would be equivalent to electing Grace's nomination will, it is thought, lend vigor to the movement of the independent non-partisan business men for the nomination of an independent non-reactionary candidate. A meeting has been called at the American House with a view to effecting an organization intended to promote a nomination for the mayoralty calculated to insure an honest and economical administration of the affairs of the city. The Herald's Columbus O., special announcements, on the authority of the Ohio State Journal, that, in view of Garfield's election, John Sherman will be retained as secretary of the treasury.

The Tammany Hall convention reassembled. John Kelly presented the report of the conference with the Irving Hall democracy; the report named Wm. R. Grace for mayor, and Frank Smith for recorder.

August J. DeBarry for register, and Wm. Saverand and J. J. Stevens for aldermen-at-large. All were unanimously nominated. The committee from the Irving Hall convention announced to their party the names of the nominees.

Wm. R. Grace for mayor, Charles H. Truax for judge of the superior court, and B. K. Kenney for alderman-at-large. The other aldermen-at-large, falling to Irving Hall, had been given to the German democrats. The nominees were unanimously endorsed by the Tammany Hall convention. The remaining nominations of judges of the marine court and district aldermen will be made by a joint conference of the committees. An address has been issued by the leading business men of this city to the voters of the county, calling upon them to support and increase Hancock's majority. The address reviews the property of the country since both houses of Congress have been democratic, and asserts that that party today in its platform has not a single measure against any legitimate industry. Among the signers are B. Phelps, John J. Crook, David M. Stone, Charles H. Marshall, J. H. Brown, S. D. Babcock, Charles L. Dwyer, D. Willis, James Anderson, and Phelps Stokes.

Providence, R.I.—The greenback convention has nominated presidential electors, and for congressmen, H. C. Oram.

Mentor, O., 19.—The Lincoln Club of Indianapolis, 400 strong, visited Garfield to-day, all wearing hats and linen dusters, as a burlesque on the Jefferson Club of their city, who wear rich costumes. Their spokesman said they brought good news and promises from Indiana, which General Garfield said he was glad to hear, and referred to their costume, which he said resembled the old Continental uniform. He referred to Lincoln and to Indiana's proud history. He praised the news they brought because it showed the revival of the spirit of 1876 and of Abraham Lincoln and universal liberty.

LAKE DISASTERS.

Further, but Unsatisfactory Particulars Concerning the "Alpena."

Chicago, 19.—The steam barge Trader, which plies between Chicago and Muskegon and does a lumber business, and which, according to the advice and reports of the officers of the schooner, who have seen her wreckage, has been lost and gone to pieces on the east shore of Lake Michigan, was captained by Frank Brown, and manned by a crew of ten. She measured 150 tons, classed B 2, and was valued at $6,000. All hands have probably perished.

Holland, Mich., 19.—A man just in from Fremont, eight miles north, says: During the night a bucket, two life preservers, and a cabin door, all marked Alpena, came ashore there. At Lot Camp stood part of the wrecked deck. Inside were fine grain work, one piano, with upper lid gone, marked Vischer, New York, maker; also an oval stairway and a bucket found on the beach, a mile north of the Harbor. The bucket was marked the steamer Alpena, nothing else was marked. Men are watching the shore for other portions.

The wreck of the Alpena is coming ashore. The piano has been identified.

The body of Mrs. Bradley, of Santa Fe, was the first to come ashore. She had been spending the summer at Grand Haven with two children. Watchers are patrolling the shore waiting for further wreckage.

Montague, Mich., 18.—Sections of the Trader and Alpena have been washed ashore at Stone Creek, near here, including the Alpena's wheel, a piano, rope and lumber. Grand Haven, Mich., 19.—Passengers of the Alpena, so far as can be learned: W. S. Benham, Ed. Herold and wife, M. Crammen, Mrs. B. F. Curtis and Captain H. V. Squire, of Grand Haven; Mrs. Bradley and two children, of Santa Fe, N.M.; Mrs. S. B. Cox, of Illinois; H. T. Locke, agent Hill Bros., New York; Rev. Father Hart and wife, White Pigeon, Mich.; Mr. Rodger, agent glassworks, Syracuse, N.Y.; John J. Bower, ex-steward Alpena; John O'Brien, wife and three children, Chicago; Maggie Mack, ex-stewardess Alpena; N. P. McGilvray, St. Joseph, Mich.; a man with three children, name unknown; C. Kuster, Fred Spareth, G. Hallinger, Grand Rapids, L. Landreth, Muskegon. The following are supposed to have been on the Alpena: L. D. Pirtion, New York; Harry L. St. Clair, Chicago; W. C. Pettibone, Chicago; a Jew by the name of Bob Sinky, a scrap-iron buyer, Chicago.
